English 12 First Peoples

English 12 First Peoples is being offered online through North Coast Distance Education to students across BC from February 2011 to June 2011. This course is rigorous and culturally diverse and meets all English 12 requirements for graduation. It is a vibrant, interactive, and flexible course that covers a number of units and themes, including Storytelling and the Oral Tradition, Lost Peoples, Identity, Residential Schools, and others. It incorporates a wide range of text from First Peoples authors and storytellers, including poetry, short stories, oral stories, novels, and films.

North Coast Distance Education is excited to offer EFP 12 online using Desire2Learn, a virtual learning environment, where students and teacher engage in activities and discussions.
